WISCONSIN, INC., et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

JOSHUA KAUL, et al.,

Defendants.

PRELIMINARY PRETRIAL
CONFERENCE ORDER

19-cv-38-wmc

This court held a telephonic preliminary pretrial conference on April 23, 2019. Plaintiffs appeared by Lester Pines, Tamara Packard and David Diesenhouse. Defendants appeared by Brian Keenan and Jennifer Vandermeuse. The court set the schedule for this case and advised the parties that their conduct throughout this case is governed by this pretrial conference order and its attachments, which are available electronically in a hyperlink in the same docket entry as the order itself. Please note that occasionally Judge Conley makes changes to the attachments. As such, unless you do not have access to the attachments electronically (e.g., you are a pro se litigant), you should review the most recent version of the appropriate attachment to assure compliance when preparing summary judgment or other pre-trial submissions.

The parties and their attorneys must at all times treat everyone involved in this lawsuit with courtesy and consideration. The parties must attend diligently to their obligations in this lawsuit and must reasonably accommodate each other in all matters so as to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive resolution of each proceeding in this matter as required by Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 1. Failure to do so shall have consequences.

1. Amendments to the Pleadings: May 15, 2019

Amendments to the pleadings may be filed and served without leave of court through the date set forth above. After that, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15 applies, and the later a party seeks leave of the court to amend, the less likely it is that justice will require the amendment.

2. Disclosure of Experts: Proponents: December 6, 2019

Respondents: February 21, 2020

All disclosures mandated by this paragraph must comply with the requirements of Rule 26(a)(2). There shall be no third round of rebuttal expert reports. Supplementation pursuant to Rule 26(e) is limited to matters raised in an expert's first report, must be in writing and must be served not later than five calendar days before the expert's deposition, or before the general discovery cutoff if no one deposes the expert. Any employee of a party who will be offering expert opinions during any phase of this case must comply with the requirements of Rule 26(a)(2)(B).

Failure to comply with these deadlines and procedures could result in the court striking the testimony of a party's experts pursuant to Rule 37. The parties may agree among themselves to modify deadlines and procedures relating to experts, though all expert disclosures must be made no later than 60 days before trial, and expert discovery must be completed no later than 30 days before trial.

3. Deadline for Filing Dispositive Motions: May 8, 2020

Dispositive motions may be filed and served by any party on any date up to the deadline set above. All dispositive motions must be accompanied by supporting briefs. All responses to any dispositive motion must be filed and served within 21 calendar days of service of the motion. Any reply by the movant must be filed and served within 10 calendar days of service of the response. The parties may not modify this schedule without leave of court.

If any party files a motion for summary judgment, all parties must follow this court's Summary Judgment Procedures, the most recent version of which is available as an attachment to this Order via hyperlink. The court will not consider any document that does not comply with its summary judgment procedure. A party may not file more than one motion for summary judgment in this case without leave of court.

Parties are to undertake discovery in a manner that allows them to make or respond to dispositive motions within the scheduled deadlines. The fact that the general discovery deadline cutoff, set forth below, occurs after the deadlines for filing and briefing dispositive motions is not a ground for requesting an extension of the motion and briefing deadlines.

4. Discovery Cutoff: September 25, 2020

All discovery in this case must be completed not later than the date set forth above, absent written agreement of all parties to some other date. Absent written agreement of the parties or a court order to the contrary, all discovery must conform with the requirements of Rules 26 through 37 and 45. Rule 26(a)(1) governs initial disclosures unless the parties agree in writing to the contrary.

The following discovery materials shall not be filed with the court unless they concern a motion or other matter under consideration by the court: interrogatories; responses to interrogatories; requests for documents; responses to requests for documents; requests for admission; and responses to requests for admission.

A party need not file a deposition transcript with the court until that party is using the deposition in support of some other submission, at which time the entire deposition must be filed. All deposition transcripts must be in compressed format. The court will not accept duplicate transcripts. The parties must determine who will file each transcript.

A party may not file a motion regarding discovery until that party has made a good faith attempt to resolve the dispute. All efforts to resolve the dispute must be set forth in any subsequent discovery motion filed with this court. By this order, the court requires all parties to a discovery dispute to attempt to resolve it quickly and in good faith. Failure to do so could result in cost shifting and sanctions under Rule 37.

This court also expects the parties to file discovery motions promptly if self-help fails. Parties who fail to do so may not seek to change the schedule on the ground that discovery proceeded too slowly to meet the deadlines set in this order.

All discovery-related motions must be accompanied by a supporting brief, affidavit, or other document showing a prima facie entitlement to the relief requested. Any response to a discovery motion must be served and filed within seven calendar days of service of the motion. Replies may not be filed unless requested by the court.

5. All motions in limine: October 23, 2020

Responses: November 6, 2020

The first date is the deadline to file and serve all motions in limine. The second date is the deadline for responsive submissions. All other pretrial submissions are set forth in the Bench Trial Procedure for Pretrial Submissions, the most recent version of which is available as an attachment to this order via hyperlink.

6. Final Pretrial Conference: November 17, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.

Lead counsel for each party must attend in person. Any deposition that has not been filed with the Clerk of Court by the date of the final pretrial conference shall not be used by any party for any purpose at trial.

7. Trial: December 7, 2020 at 9:00 a.m.

Trial shall be to the court. The parties estimate that this case will take five to eight days to try. Absent further order of this court, the issues to be tried shall be limited to those identified by the parties in their pretrial conference report to the court. The court shall try the issues of liability and damages without bifurcation. A copy of this court's procedural order for non-jury cases is attached.

This case will be tried in an electronically equipped courtroom and the parties shall present their evidence using this equipment. Counsel shall ensure the compatibility of any of their personal equipment with the court's system prior to the final pretrial conference or shall forfeit their right to use any personal equipment that is not compatible with the court's system.

8. Reporting Obligation of Corporate Parties.

All parties that are required to file a disclosure of corporate affiliations and financial interest form have a continuing obligation throughout this case promptly to amend that form to reflect any changes in the answers.

Entered this 24th day of April, 2019.
